Why Moyer Testified.

know he was been lying and lying Cripple Creek Froubles, Plunging vigorously into the Cripple Creek troubles, Mr. Darrow declared that "when some day the people get the right angle on this case and look the roof of the Bradley apartment house except by climbing the gutter

"And you don't eatch Harry climb-ing any pipes," he went on.
"Oh, no; no chance like that for Harry. He might fall down and hurt his finger—and if he hurt his finger he might not be able to play upon the harn in kingdom come."

arp in kingdom come."

The luncheon recess until 2 p. m.

CONEY MUST FIGHT.

Three Other Candidates in Field for

Commander in Chief

Saratoga, N. Y., July 25.-The following outline for the pregram for the G.

Saturday, September 7, Commander-in-Chief R. B. Brown will open headquarters at the United States hotel. The Grand Army posts as they arrive will

Tuesday, September 10, will be devoted to the welcoming of the chiefs and members of the Grand Army of the Re-an invitation to be present and an in-vitation has been extended to President

Wednesday, September 11, at 2 o'clock, has been set for the great pa-

Thursday, business matters will be ta-ken up and will be concluded on Fri-

Saturday will be a day of excursions.

Every indication points to a hot fight for the office of commander-in-chief.

Already several candidates have appeared in the field with a large number of supporters. These are General Charles G. Burton of Missouri, Chester Burrows of New Jersey, General W. T. Wilder of Tennessee and Patrick Coney of Kan-

Other than for the office of command er-in-chief there will be little competi-

SHE CUT HER THROAT

An Iola Woman Falls Dead Among

Her Children.

Iola, Kan., July 25.

Governor Hughes has accepted

A. R. encampment is announced:

was ordered at noon.

since his conversion.

of Haywood.

THURSDAY EVENING.

TOPEKA, KANSAS, JULY 25, 1907.

THURSDAY EVENING.

in Wichita.

TWO CENTS

IN FULL CONTROL

Japan Has Removed Every Semblance of Korean Autonomy.

Has Established a Guardianship Over the Empire.

A RESIDENT GENERAL.

Must Pass Upon Every Act of Emperor or Cabinet.

All Other Foreigners AreBarred From the Administration.

Seoul, July 25 .- Iwan-Yung, premier of Korea, according to authority of the emperor, given under the imperial seal at the palace early yesterday, and Marquis Ito, resident general of Japan, signed the following agreement at midnight at the Japanese residency: "The government of On Street Level Thermometers Japan and Korea, in view of the earattainment of prosperity and strength in Korea and the speedy promotion of the welfare of the Korean people, have agreed upon and concluded the following stipulations:
"Article 1—The government of Korea shall follow the direction of the

The Japanese plan, it is announced, is to take control very gradually as there is a dearth in Japan of competent and available officials. A modern administration of Korean affairs would entail a draft of 1,200 officials and impose a deficit of three times the present revenues. The organization of courts of justice will entail an immense burden, as no legal code now exists. The urgent necessity is to The urgent necessity is to obtain control of the Korean army and it is expected that General Ha-zewa will be added to the military zewa will be added to the mil

WAS LABELED POISON.

olead it to believe that there is and for the first time in a number of sison in the stomach of the man who sison is at Fort Snelling, Minn., one squadron is up in companies out of more than half a Montana.

It is not known what this evidence army office army office army office army office.

except that an insurance detective has said he is ready to swear that he picked up, upon the Perkins's house picked up, upon the Perkins's house roof, a small folded paper bearing the word "poison," as though the pack-age had contained a dose of the dead-ly drug. It is the theory of the company that Perkins went out upon the roof, took the poison, let its effect come on, and tumbled off the roof while under its influence. This in itself is not generally considered to be enough evidence to form basis for the motion to exhume, and the public here is awaiting with marked inter-est the developments at the hearing today.

FIGHT FOR LICENSE.

Insurance Company Seeks an Injunction in the Federal Court.

Nashville, Tenn., July 25 .- For the first time in Tennessee the powers of General Hughes and the resident offi-the United States court have been invoked in an attempt to restrain the insurance commissioner from compelling an insurance company to conform to the laws enacted for its regulation by the state of Tennessee. This is the nature of an injunction bill filed in the United States circuit court by the State Mutual Life company of Rome, Ga., in which it is sought to prevent Commissioner Folk from reprevent Commissioner Follyoking the license of the voking the license of the insurance company on account of alleged dereliction of duty and noncompliance with the laws of Tennessee.

Commissioner Folk has been cited to appear before Judge C. D. Clark in his chambers at Chattanooga on August 19, and show cause why an injunction pendente lite should not issue. Upon the filing of the bill in the United States circuit court at Nashville an order was granted by Judge R. R. Lurton.

A Kansas Girl to Japan. Cherryvale, Kan., July 25.—Miss Lydia Lindsey has left for New York, where she secures passage to sail on August 23 for Japan, to take up her work as a

Why does the old man holler hallelulla oud!" they ain't been answerin' his public office, and according to the letter of the law the presence of the women in office is illegal.

POUR COAL OIL ON MEAT

Jewish Women Resent an Advance in Butchers' Prices.

Philadelphia, July 25.-The Jewish parter was the scene of wild disorder day when the women of the quarter made demonstrations against all the Kosher butchers as a protest against an increase in the price of

The shops were invaded by the angry women, prospective customers driven out, windows broken and keroin a number of instance poured over all the meat in sight. Ar-rests were followed by demonstrations against two police stations to which several of the women were taken and the police were compelled to use considerable force in dispersing the crowds.

HEAT IS INTENSE.

Mercury Mounts to 100 This Afternoon.

Register From 105 to 110.

Once more the weather record is

"Article 6—Korea shall not engage any foreigner without the consent of the resident general.

"Article 7—The first clause of the agreement between Japan and Korea, dated August 22, 1904, is hereby abrogated."

The agreement abrogates the advisor as a fair of the government which are taken on the agreement abrogates the advisor associated as a bed of sand and the lightest where associated as a bed of sand and the lightest agreement as a soft and soggest as a bed of sand and the lightest where associated as a soft and soggest as a bed of sand and the lightest where associated as a soft and soggest as a soft as agent for the second squadron of the Second cavairy. U. S. A., arrived in town bright and early this morning, to see that accommodations were provided for the squadron which arrived from Fort Riley at about 11:30, and is now encamped at the fair grounds.

army officers about the Japanese war talk?" was asked.
"Up at Riley they seem to generally believe that it is hot air, and newspa-per talk. They don't expect any war with Japan."

Lieutenant Eby returned from the burn there forever for all I know. Philippines about a year ago. In speaking of them he said:

"Whether the islands are worth hav-ing is not a matter for me to discuss. Those who are posted on commercial Those who are posted on commercial and strategic affairs are the ones to decide about that. I know that the natives over there are a worthless lot, Still, I had a pleasant time on the islands, and enjoyed myself.

"It has now been decided by the government to send the negro troops to the islands. Heretofore the government has not deemed it advisable to send negro troops to the islands, and the percentage of the islands." the negroes have waited a long time for their turn to go. Now they are being sent over as rapidly as pos-

The eight officers of the Second squadron will be entertained this even-ing at dinner at the Elks by Adjutant

NOT A MAN IS LEFT.

Women Assume Direction of Affairs in Hungarian Town.

Budapest, July 25.-The lure of the Eudapest, July 25.—The lure of the United States as a land of opportunity and wealth to the people of Hungary has brought out a curious state of affairs in the little village of Kerisova, near Lugos, that at the last census had a population of 3,500 souls. One by one the male residents of Kerisova heard the call across the water, and they emigrated in hatches until such time as the ed in batches until such time as the mayor was the only adult male to re-main by the village. Finally he also suc-

women of Kerlsova have just elected a young woman to the position of mayor, and other female residents have been elected to fill the remainder of the municipal offices. The statutes in Hun-gary provide that no female shall hold public office, and according to the letter

STILL BITTER.

Clarence Darrow Continues His Abuse of Orchard.

Accuses Pinkertons of the Independence Depot Explosion.

EXCUSE FOR SIMPKINS.

Says He Was Afraid to Come Forward and Testify.

Tells Why Pettibone Was Not Placed on the Stand.

Boise, Idaho, July 25 .- Final pleadng for the acquittal of William D. Haywood was continued this morning by Clarence Darrow. United States Senator Borah will begin the closing argument for the state at the evening

Mr. Darrow confined himself more closely to a review of the evidence, but throughout the theme there continued trial unceasingly and almost to the point of monotony the strong note of abuse of broken though that made by the mer- Orchard and condemnation of the cury yesterday was the highest since Pinkertons. Extreme hoarseness at the 24th day of July. 1901. At 2 first interfered somewhat with the rea shall follow the direction of the resident general in connection with the reform of the administration.

"Article 2—Korea shall not enact any law or ordinance or carry out any law or ordinance or carry out any the previous approval of the resident general.

"Article 3—Judicial affairs of Korea shall be kept distinct from ordinary administrative affairs.

"Article 4—No appointment or dismissal of Korean officials of high grade shall be made without the consecution with the resident general.

"Article 4—No appointment or dismissal of Korean officials of high grade shall be made without the consecution with the resident general.

"Article 4—No appointment or dismissal of Korean officials of high grade shall be made without the consecution with the resident general.

The wind is blowing from the south the street level is probably five despression. The heat on the street level 98 on top of the weather bureau building sand two hours afterwards 100. At 2 o'clock the mercury registered 98 on top of the weather bureau building and two hours afterwards 100. At 2 o'clock today the mercury registered 100 and is still climbing. The heat on the street level so oratory, but a lib-oratory but a lib-oratory between the more and two hours afterwards 100. At 2 o'clock today the mercury registered 100 and is still climbing. The heat on the street somewhat with the case. He said he referred to the most oral use of lozenges afforded some relief and by the time Mr Darrow reached the labor troubles in Colorado he threw all restraint aside and, in spite of a reminder from the court, he rose the labor troubles of oratory, but a lib-oratory by the first of a reminder from the court, he rose the labor troubles of oratory, but a lib-oratory by the first of the most oratory by the first of the most of the most of the most of the most of the loads some or the loads some or the loads for the loads after deal of the labor troubles of oratory, but a lib-oratory by the first of the loads of the labor troubles of the labor troubles of the loa o'clock the mercury registered 98 on speaker's flights of oratory, but a lib-dinary administrative affairs.

"Article 4—No appointment or dismissal of Korean officials of high grade shall be made without the consent of the resident general.

"Article 5—Korea shall appoint to official positions such Japanese as are recommended by the resident general.

"Article 6—Korea shall not engage "Article 6—Korea shall not engage that the direction within the next of the action of Jack Simpkins in disappearing. He argued to the jury that at the time of Steunenberg's death no man accused of the murder would have been given a fair trial. He commended Simpkins for remaining in hiding during the present trial and brought bold accusation against the said: brought bold accusation against the jury he was addressing when he said:
"Possibly a year hence every man who hasn't been hanged can get a full trial in Bolse."

The agreement abrogates the advisor system, especially affecting the finance department, under Advisor Megata, who now becomes a Korean official. It also affects the judicial department of the Korean government for which a corps of advisers for all the provinces recently arrived from Japan,

The Japanese plan, it is announced, it to take control very gradually as there is a dearth in Japan of compefair trial in Boise."

He explained the action of the Western Federation of Miners in reelecting Simpkins a member of the executive board upon the ground that as "brave men and brothers, we should be believed.

Darrow Resumes.

In resuming his address to the Haywood jury this morning Clarence E. Darrow of Chicago, who is having the last word for the defense, took up a defense of Jack Simpkins' flight after the arrest of Harry Orchard. Mr. Darrow's voice was very hoarse, the result of his five hours and forty minutes of speaking on yesterday, and he spoke today only with the greatest of the right angle on this case and lood back upon the Colorado labor struggles they will have read one of the most important and pregnant chapters in the history of the United States.

"Talk about law and order," he explained, "nowhere in all the world has law and order ever been trampled in the feelow. The provise total order ever been trampled in the spoke today only with the greatest of effort.

"They ask us why Jack Simpkins' is not here" said Town bright and early this.

Darrow enlesses and lood back upon the Colorado labor struggles they will have read one of the most important and pregnant chapters in the history of the United States.

"Talk about law and order," he explained, "nowhere in all the world has law and order ever been trampled in the feelow.

"They ask us why Jack Simpkins' is not here" said Town bright angle on this case and lood back upon the Colorado labor struggles they will have read one of the most important and pregnant chapters in the history of the United States.

"Talk about law and order," he explained, "nowhere in all the world has law and order ever been trampled in the dust as it was at Cripple Creek by the most important and pregnant chapters in the history of the United States.

"Talk about law and order," he explained, "nowhere in all the world has law and order," he explained, "nowhere in all the world has law and order, but to you to you and the proving the law and order, the proving the p

Insurance Agent Finds Evidence in the Perkins Case.

Lawrence, Kan., July 25.—There must be a big showing of hands in Kansas City, Kan., when the hearing upon the motion to exhume the body of L. H. Perkins is called in federal court, before Judge Smith McPherson today.

The Mutual of New York will show who had in the lead it to believe that there is poisson in the stomach of the man who possesses to lead it to believe that there is poisson in the stomach of the man who possesses the poisson in the stomach of the man who possesses the poisson in the stomach of the man who possesses the poisson in the stomach of the man who possesses the poisson in the stomach of the man who possesses the poisson in the stomach of the man who possesses the poisson in the stomach of the man who possesses the poisson in the stomach of the man who possesses the poisson in the stomach of the man who possesses the poisson in the stomach of the man who possesses the poisson in the stomach of the man who possesses the provided the fair grounds.

"We are on our way from Fort Riley at about 11:30, and is now encamped at the fair grounds.

"We are on our way from Fort Riley at about 11:30, and is now encamped at the fair grounds.

"We are on our way from Fort Riley at about 11:30, and is now encamped at the fair grounds.

"We are on our way from Fort Riley at about 11:30, and is now encamped at the fair grounds.

"We are on our way from Fort Riley at about 11:30, and is now encamped at the fair grounds.

"We are on our way from Fort Riley at about 11:30, and is now encamped at the fair grounds.

"We are on our way from Fort Riley at about 11:30, and is fair fair form form Riley the state ment I take serious is, the reason. Hawley tells you that Simphur the with the season. Hawley tells you that Simphur the stends that the is afraid, that's the fair form form Riley the safe at the last from the fait the substitute proves that he is afraid, that's finate proves that he is afraid, that's the fait Levide the substitute at the fair grounds.

"H Fort man has had to take refuge from the mob. I don't know whether Jack Simp-kins is innocent or not. Is there any way What seems to be the idea of the I can tell and be honest with the jury I haven't seen him after he ran away. He was in Caldwell with Orchard and was Orchard's friend. Simpkins had een in the Idaho bull pen and indigni ties to which he was subjected burn in his heart today and will probably probably

Both Had Reasons. Simpkins had reason to harbor hatred against Steunenberg. Orchard had rea-son, either rightly or wrongly, to harbor hatred against Steunenberg. kins and Orchard had been together in Spokane for a month before they went to Caldwell. If Jack Simpkins went there for the purpose Orchard was told and I prefer to think that he was merely on a trip to the southern Idaho unions and stopped off at Caldwell only for a day or two at Orehard's solicitation; what ever Simpkins went to Caldwell to do. ne went away without guilt. He did not raise a hand against Steunenberg.

"Hawley blames us for re-electing Simpkins to the executive board. It might have been better to have left him off. This is a cowardly world. It might have been better for the 40,000 members of the Western Federation of Miners to have turned their backs on him when to have turned their backs on him when he was nearest, har if we had do that their line illawiey would have told that the fact that the federation dropped Simpkins showed beyond a shadow of doubt that the man was guiltq. But that is not the stuff the brave men of the Western Federation of Miners are made of Till Jack Simpkins is convicted, every metaber of the federation will stand by him and will not judge him until he has had his day it court.

and with the has had his day in court.

"If Simpkins had been your letther, you men of this hery would have told him to go away until the passions of men had cooled, this he could appeal to an had cooled, till he could appeal to an impartial jury which would listen ps-tiently to his story and render a fair and just verdict upon him. Of course

You know that these defendants are mayor was the only adult mayor was the village. Finally he also succumbed to the reports of good wages and golden chances in America sent back by his fellow townsmen, and, packing his trunk, he made his way to the eminant successful to the property of th

Adams and Pettibone. Mr. Darrow here went into a length; discussion as to why the defense had not put Steve Adams and George A. Pettibone on the stand. He demanded to know why the state had not put K. C. Sterling, the detective of the Mine her children were playing.

Owners' association, on the stand. Adams, the attorney explained, is on trial for the murder of a man in northern Idaho. Under these circumstances, Darrow said, he would rather cut off his right arm than allow Adams to take the Stubbs May Not Suit All the stand, much as he desired the acquittal Square Dealers. "I am not afraid of what he would say against Haywood, but I am afraid to let Adams, my client turn himself to let Adams, my client turn himself wrongside out under the cunning cross examination of Senator Borah and then have his testimony used against him when the second trial for his life begins. No lawyer who would permit a client to do such a thing would be worthy of the name."

As to Pettibone, Darrow said the Senator Stannard Thinks He Would Have Trouble at Home. MR. ROYCE COMMENTS.

circumstances were much the same. He is to be tried for his life for the murder of Steunenberg. Pettibone is Expresses Himself About Action described as an easy going, big heart-ed fellow who had allowed the creat-ure Orchard to work his way into his of Mr. Ham.

house. It was more important for Pettibone to walt and take the stand in his own behalf than to lay himself Thinks He Made Mistake in Declining Attorneyship.

open in the trial of Haywood, much as Pettibone would have liked to testify for the prisoner now at the bar. According to Senator F. H. Stannard, of Franklin county, W. R. Stubbs will "The reason the defense put Moyer on the stand, while he too, is awaiting trial." Darrow said, "is that there is no evidence of any sort for Moyer to not be an altogether desirable "square deal" candidate for the office of gover-no evidence of any sort for Moyer to explain. He expressed the bellef that Moyer never would be tried for he did not believe that a prosecution even so foolish as the one against Haywood would dare to put a man on trial with such filmsy evidence as could be entered against Moyer.

Mr. Darrow demanded to know why Detectives McParland and Sterling were not indicted, saying that to the latter especially had been brought home some of the most serious things in the case. He said he referred to the Independence depot explosion which he charged up directly to the Mine Owners' association.

"I don't believe they intended to kill 14 men or any men, but they "Stubbs would have another hard fight in the Second district, just as he did at the time of the Allen-Scott campaign.
Allen has many friends in the Second district, and the seed which he sowed there of antagonism to Stubbs are not dead yet. All the old Allen crowd would have a prominent part in the proceedings.

The members of the commission are J. T. White of Ottawa county; Geo. W. Glick of Atchison, and J. W. Corey of the will of the late John Warner. Whose estate has been appraised at $1,650,000, was made public here today, where Judge Cochrane of the superior court is hearing the case. fight Stubbs if he should get into the race for the Republican nomination for governor. The Allen-Scott fight was really a fight between Allen and Stubbs.

sympathize with them."

Mr. Darrow picked out the story told by Orchard as to the plans for kidnaping August Paulson's children as follows: "He says Dave Coates suggested it. Oh, yes, somebody was always sug-gesting these things to Orchard. He never did a criminal act of his own volition in his life. But if you men can find a way to believe Orchard in preference to Dave Coates, I don't tory of the United States.

"Talk about law and order," he explained, "nowhere in all the world has law and order ever been trampled in the dust as it was at Cripple Creek by the Mine Owners' association and their co-borts.

been a bluff.

In the Phillipsburg Dispatch, John Q. Royce comments as follows on the re-fusal of W. B. Ham to accept the appointment as attorney for the state ocard of railroad commissioners:
"The facts are that, while Mr. Ham might have been able to do much for the people in the office which Governor Hoch offered him, yet it was only one office, and if he would be able to bring about the reforms for which the square deal party was organized, it might lesfrom getting into office.

"The whole thing shows that it is not results that these reformers want so much as offices. They don't want any into many much as offices.

one man put in position where he can bring about the promised reforms bebring about the promised reforms before the next election, for if such a thing should happen, how could Stubbs.
Dolly, Stone & Co., ever expect to get the offices for which they are slated.
"For one we regret that Mr. Ham has placed personal ambition above duty to the people who have been looking to him for some kind of relief. Mr. Ham says in declining this appointment, that he prefers to go to congress where the says in declining this appointment, that he prefers to go to congress where the salary is $7,500 and perquisites, rather than to be attorney for the railroad board where the salary is only $2,500, and the vast amount of good he could do the people of Kansas, is lost sight of entirely by him in his desire to help them.

self, they may not feel like going very

"As a citizen of the Sixth district, and friend of Mr. Ham, we are sorry that he ting Grand Army posts as they arrive will be quartered at the various hotels and boarding houses.

Tuesday, September 10, will be devot-

Mr. Royce is not the only man in the Sixth district who thinks W. B. Ham made a mistake in refusing to accept the job of attorney for the board of railroad commissioners. The that the crowd around the Copeland refuse to discuss men or measures for the Republican campaign next year. He did venture, however, to condemn the action of W. B. Ham of Stockton, who was offered a fat $2,500 job as attorney for the railroad commissioners and turned it down. Dan says this thing of saying no when a job along political lines is offered, is a mighty poor habit to encourage and is not becoming any man who is en-gaged in active politics."

Thiel Is Dead. Chicago, July 25.—Gustavus H. Thiel, president and founder of the Thiel Detective Service company, died here today of apoplexy. He was secretary of the United States secret bureau during the Civil war.

Weather Indications. Chicago, July 25.—Forecast for Kansas: Fair tonight and Friday.

FOR A WIFE'S LOVE.

Divorce and Damage Suit Is Started

Wichita, Kan., July 25 .- Herman F. Oerke has brought suit for $10,000 damages against E. S. Hadley, because, as he claims, the latter caused his wife to abandon him. Mrs. Oerke secured a divorce from her husband recently. They were married in 1905.

secured a divorce from her husband recently. They were married in 1905. Oerke is sales manager for one of the largest dry goods houses in Kansas. Hadley is a local real estate man and one time a preacher in Oklahoma. It is alleged by Oerke that Hadley went to every extreme to win the love of his wife.

WHEAT MEN ARE HERE.

Want Grade Changed But Will Probably Fail.

At a meeting of the Kansas grain grading commission being held here to-day, a large delegation of Western Kan-sas wheat raisers and grain buyers appeared, and made a plea for a reduction in the standard weight for No. 2 wheat that his stepmother, Mrs. Isabella from 59 pounds to 57 pounds, and a similar reduction in lower grades.

DEADLY RAILROADS.

A German Official Declares United States Holds the Record.

Berlin, July 25 .- Herr Guillery, an official of the Archive bureau of the Prusdeal party was organized, it might lessen their chances to carry the election next year, and thus prevent a lot of the faithful promoters of the new party from getting into office. in the United States are the most dead-ly. The United States has more mile-age than all Europe, but even taking that into consideration, the United States holds pre-eminence in proportional fig-ures. Out of every thousand railway employes the ratio of the number injured each year is as follows: United States, 43.5; Switzerland, 25.3; England, 11.8; Belgium, 11; Germany, Out of every ten thousand employes the relative figures of killed are: United States, 26.1; England, 12.3; Switzerland, 8.2; Russia, 7.8; British India, 6.7; Belgium, 4.1. Herr Guillery finds that in year, the fiscal year of 1902, 376,500 persons were injured in the United States. of whom 60,000 were employes and 9,800 were killed, of whom 3,600 were emln the matter of travelers injured.

Ham.

"Mr. Ham will not be able to fool the people. They know a few things, and when he turns them down to help himas England, twenty; Belgium, e Switzerland, four; Germany, twice

HANGED ON THE QUIET.

Madame Fromkina Refused to Ask the Czar for Mercy.

Moscow, July 25 .- With the observance of the greatest privacy, Smith Center Journal says:

"Dan Dyer came home from Topeka last Saturday evening and his former working partner, Phil Chamberlain came with him and spent Sunday with his many Smith Center friends. Dan has nothing new to give out along political lines and he says that the crowd around the Copeland Madame Fromkina, who in March last smuggled into her cell, was hanged in this city at sunrise today.

The authorities made every effort during the past fortunight to persuade the woman to plead for the mercy of the emperor, but she obstinately re-fused to do so. Her parents inter-ceded with the throne in her behalf, $5,200 for public executions.

Commissioner of Pensions Warner Swears His Stepmother

Is a Negress, in Fight for His Father's Estate.

MARRIED IN KANSAS.

Wedding Grew Out of a Railroad Wreck Romance.

Ante-Nuptial Agreement Figures in the Case.

Clinton, Ill., July 25.-Vespasian Warner, United States commissioner of ensions, one of the biggest political figures in Illinois, under oath charges startling accusation, made in the fight superior court is hearing the case.

ings.

At the conclusion of the morning session, Mr. White said: "I do not think the commission will make any material changes in the grading as adopted for the 1906."

superior court is hearing the case.

People were astounded. Not only does Vespasian Warner charge that his stepmother is of negro blood, but he goes so far as to say that a taint of the 1906."

sovernor. The Alien-Scott fight was provided to the commission will make any materials of the provided provided to the commission will make any materials changes in the grading as adopted for the morning to the commission will make any materials changes in the grading as adopted for the morning to the commission will make any materials changes in the grading as adopted for the morning to the commission will make any materials changes in the grading as adopted for the morning to the commission where the meeting that the meeting to the publican candidate, he would be elected, and not only that, but he would carry the second district. The fight would be repeated to the publican ricket next year depends larged to the control of the con ner's charge, concerning her parent-age, it is said, followed her refusal. Vespasian Warner succeeded Eu-gene Ware of Kansas as pension com-missioner in 1905.

THEY DON'T BELIEVE IT. A Denial of Warner's Charge in His is given here to allegations made in Clinton, Ill., by Vespusian Warner, p-n-sion commissioner, that his stepmother, Isabella Robinson Warner, has negro blood in her veins. Her grandfather was called "Black" Robinson because he had dark skin and black curly hair. Benjamin Wickham, counsel for Mrs. Warner, said tonight that her father. Stephen Robinson, had been denied a vote prior to the Civil war because it was said he had negro blood in his veins. He sued the election officers and won his suit by proving that there was no negro blood in his family. Commissioner Warner was in Nor-

Commissioner Warner was in Norwalk last spring, getting depositions for the suit filed in Clinton, I'll. It is said be was unable to get any testimony than an unauthentic report that the Robinson family had negro

COME IN ON TOPEKA.

More Survivors of the Columbia Reach San Francisco.

San Francisco, Cal., July 25.-The steamer City of Topeka arrived here today with the following survivors of the Columbia wreck:

W. H. Smith, San Francisco Miss Alma Osterberg, Cleveland, C. C. Roland, Spokane. Phil Ashford, Livermore, Cal. J. F. Kavanaugh, Oakland. H. S. Keever, Denver. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Decker, Tesla, Cal. Mrs. H. C. Shaw, Stockton. A. Winkelbeck Dunn, Poplar Bluff, Miss Lulu Hansen, Minneapolis.

Members o the Columbia's crew who rrived on the same vessel were W. T. Lawrence, J. J. Fogarty, A. St. Clair, C. E. Nolan, R. Engman and Purser

WASTED $15,000.

Legislature Would Not Do What Governor Hughes Desired.

fused to do so. Her parents interceded with the throne in her behalf, but their efforts were unavailing.

Madame Fromkina was not charged with actual murder, but accused of making several ineffectual attempts to kill officials. It is believed that her mind was unbalanced and that she suffered from hysteria.

They Want His Blood.

Paris, July 25.—There is a great and increasing popular clamor for the carrying out of the death sentence imposed last Tuesday upon a man named Soleillant for the murder of a little girl under particularly atrocious circumstances, especially as the chamber of deputies has appropriated $5,200 for public executions.

nominations by the governor.